FUND OBJECTIVE

The Counterpoint Tactical Income Fund seeks income and capital preservation.

FUND STRATEGY

The Counterpoint Tactical Income Fund aims to provide absolute returns in a stable or recovering market environment and seeks to preserve investment capital in times of economic uncertainty. The Fund uses algorithmic trend-following decision tools to determine when to buy and sell mutual funds and ETFs of high yielding bonds, low duration treasuries, and cash equivalents.

PERFORMANCE SINCE INCEPTION

As of June 30, 2022

TACTICAL HIGH YIELD SIGNALS OVER TIME

The above stylized example depicts trading signals to a tactical strategy on the High Yield bond market. The strategy uses crosses above and below the 200-day moving average of the Morningstar High Yield Category to create buy and sell signals. Several signals are omitted to improve readability. The Fund does not use the 200-day moving average in its strategy, but employs a similar trend-following approach.

Definitions

Standard deviation is a measure of dispersion of returns from its mean return. Higher deviation represents higher volatility. Sharpe Ratio is a risk-adjusted measure of a fund's performance that indicates a fund's return per unit of risk, defining risk as volatility (standard deviation). Correlation is a statistical measure of how two securities move in relation to each other. Beta is a measure of the fund's sensitivity to market movements. Beta greater than 1 is more volatile than the market; beta lower than 1 is less volatile than the market.

Important Risk Information

The Bloomberg US Aggregate Bond Index is made up of the Bloomberg US Government/Corporate Bond Index, Mortgage-Backed Securities Index, and Asset-Backed Securities Index, including securities that are of investment grade quality or better, have at least one year to maturity, and have an outstanding par value of at least $100 million. As it is not possible to invest in the index the data shown does not reflect or compare features of an actual investment, such as its objectives, costs and expenses, liquidity, safety, guarantees or insurance, fluctuation of principal or return, or tax features.

Mutual Funds involve risk including the possible loss of principal. The use of leverage by the Fund or an Underlying Fund, such as borrowing money to purchase securities or the use of derivatives, will indirectly cause the Fund to incur additional expenses and magnify the Fund's gains or losses. Derivative instruments involve risks different from, or possibly greater than, the risks associated with investing directly in securities and other traditional investments. There is a risk that issuers and counterparties will not make payments on securities and other investments held by the Fund, resulting in losses to the Fund. The Fund may invest in high yield securities, also known as "junk bonds." High yield securities provide greater income and opportunity for gain, but entail greater risk of loss of principal. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. There is no assurance the Funds will meet their stated objectives.

The Morningstar Rating™ for funds, or "star rating", is calculated for managed products (including mutual funds, variable annuity and variable life subaccounts, exchange-traded funds, closed-end funds, and separate accounts) with at least a three-year history. Exchange-traded funds and open-ended mutual funds are considered a single population for comparative purposes. It is calculated based on a Morningstar Risk-Adjusted Return measure that accounts for variation in a managed product's monthly excess performance, placing more emphasis on downward variations and rewarding consistent performance. The Morningstar Rating does not include any adjustment for sales loads. The top 10% of products in each product category receive 5 stars, the next 22.5% receive 4 stars, the next 35% receive 3 stars, the next 22.5% receive 2 stars, and the bottom 10% receive 1 star. The Overall Morningstar Rating for a managed product is derived from a weighted average of the performance figures associated with its three-, five-, and 10-year (if applicable) Morningstar Rating metrics. The Morningstar Rating is for the Institutional, A-share, and C-share class. Morningstar Percentile Rankings are based on the average annual total returns of the funds in the category for the periods stated and do not include any sales charges or redemption fees. The highest (or most favorable) percentile rank is 1 and the lowest (or least favorable) percentile rank is 100. Rankings for each share class will vary due to different expenses.
